Cameron and Lathrop Winners in the Northwest Missouri Meet

Competition Keen in Both Class A and B, with Final Events Deciding Championship in Each Section.—Many Records Fall by the Wayside as Athletes from Forty High Schools Participate in Closest and One of Fastest Meets in History Here.

High school track and field athletes from forty high schools in Northwest Missouri toiled away four hours on the College field last Saturday, and when the last event on the eighteenth annual meet program had been completed it was found that two schools had emerged victorious, each in a different class, by so close a margin that the final events of the afternoon had decided the matter.

In Class A, Cameron High School, represented by sixteen tracksters, barely nosed out the boys from St. Joseph Central, to win with 38½ points. The St. Joseph team counted 38 points. A third place in the half-mile relay, the final Class A event of the afternoon, decided the meet and gave Cameron the half-point advantage and the big silver loving cup.

Competition was almost as close in Class B, Lathrop High School winning this meet with a total of 23 7-10 points, while Rock Port totaled 22½ points and Maysville 22 points.

It was one of the fastest, and certainly the closest of the eighteen meets which have featured Northwest Missouri high school competition in Maryville. The track was in fast shape, the weather was ideal, and a record-breaking crowd was well satisfied with the outcome of the whole event.

In the meet, points in Class A were divided among nine teams, while sixteen schools shared honors in Class B.

Many Records Fall
Both the Class A relay records fell by the wayside when the Cameron quartet covered the distance in the Medley relay in 3 minutes 54.2 seconds. Tarkio formerly held the record with 4 minutes, 8 4-5 seconds. The other relay record to fall was the half mile which was won by Chillicothe in 1 minute, 37.3 seconds. The former record was held by Maryville with 1 min. 38.6 seconds.

Rinehart of Ridgeway, of Class B, shattered the shot put record when he heaved the pellet 43 feet 3¼ inches at a try for record. Moore of Ridgeway formerly held the record of 43 feet.

Chillicothe broke another record when Justice threw the javelin 158 feet, ½ inch, breaking the record of Reeco of Maysville of 154 feet.

The old record was made by a former Ridgeway star, Moore. N. Bruce of Chillicothe equalled the record in the 440-yard dash, set up by Leon Ungles of Maitland, of 53 8-10 seconds, in 1925.

Linniger High-Point Man
Linniger, a class B man from Rock Port, was the most versatile man on the track and field, accounting for 15½ of Rock Port's 22½ points. He was high point man of the meet as well as of Class B. He was hard pressed for the honors by Walker of Lathrop, class B, who counted 15 points by taking first in the 120-yard high hurdles, broad jump and 220-yard low hurdles. Linniger tied for first and second in the high jump, took second in the high hurdles, fourth in the broad jump, third in the javelin, second in the low hurdles and tied for second and third in the pole vault.

The next high point man of the meet was Kimes of Cameron, who accounted for 11 points by taking first in the high jump, first in the shot put, and fourth in the hundred yard dash. He is a class A athlete. Welch of Chillicothe, also class A, came next with ten points. He captured first in the 220 and the century dash, besides running in the half mile relay.

Following are the summaries:
220-yard Dash.
Class A—Welch of Chillicothe, first; Browning of Mound City, second; More of Trenton, third; Goetz of St. Joseph (Central), fourth.
Time: 23.3 seconds. Record: Wilcox of Liberty, 22.4 sec.

Class B: Asbury of Maysville, first; Goodwin of Lathrop, second; Culp of Ridgeway and Fagin of Lathrop tied for third. Time: 23.6.

120-Yard High Hurdles.
Class A—M. Sheldon of Albany, first; C. Kissinger of Maryville, second. Others disqualified.
Time, 16.9 seconds. Record: 16.4 seconds, Smith Ridgeway, 1924.

Class B—F. Walker of Lathrop, first; Linniger of Rock Port, second; H. Amos of Plattsburg, third; R. Henry of Fortescue, fourth.
Time, 18.7 seconds.

440-Yard Dash
Class A—N. Bruce of Chillicothe, first; Cockburn of Central (St. Joseph), second; M. Hoover of Trenton, third; Cunningham of Chillicothe, fourth. Time 53.8. Record: 53.8-10 sec., Ungles, Maitland, 1925.

Class B: Brooks of Tarkio, first; K. Dunham of Maryville, second;

Intercollegiate Debates Will Be Held on Monday

Springfield and Kirksville Teams to Be Here, While Both Maryville Combinations Will Be Competing Away From Home.

Monday, May 9, Springfield and Kirksville State Teachers Colleges will clash in a debate held in our College auditorium at 10 o'clock. Springfield is to uphold the affirmative side of the question, Resolved: That the direct primary should be abandoned in favor of the convention system as a method of nominating local, state and federal officers. This will be the regular weekly assembly program. Ten o'clock classes will meet on Wednesday.

While this debate is in progress here, Burdette Yeo and Mary Esther O'Bannon, the affirmative team of Maryville, will meet Cape Girardeau at Kirksville, and Byron Beavers and Leland Medsker Maryville negative team, will meet Warrensburg affirmative at Springfield.

The debaters have worked sincerely on a question that has been difficult to handle since many of the authorities deal in generalities which makes support with the specific a real problem. Be that as it may, Maryville is ready to give the necessary opposition.

H.S. Dramatic Club Outlines Programs

At a meeting of the high school Dramatic Club held last Monday, a schedule for the remaining programs of the year was made out.

At the second meeting, Ruby Norris will read "Le" by Eugene O'Neil. Lameda Nelson will give a sketch of the author's life.

At the third meeting, "Cinderella Married," by Lady Gregory will be read by the following persons:
Cinderella Augusta Vert
Prince Charming Lawrence Sherlock
Lady Arbella Ruth Inton
Lady Carolyn May Hall
Robin Paul Shonley
Nannie Elsie Rogers
Thelma Jackson will discuss the life of Lady Gregory.

The last meeting will be devoted to a study of make-up. Each member of the club will make up a young and old man and woman.

Baker Here for Commencement of the College

Missouri's Governor to Deliver Address to Graduates on May 24.—High School Exercises Are Announced.

Governor Sam A. Baker of the state of Missouri will deliver the commencement address for the 1927 graduating class of the College. Commencement exercises will be at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, May, 24. Some time ago the governor was asked to deliver the address to the graduates, and President Lamkin received his consent Monday.

For the first time in the history of the College, the faculty members of the institution will attend the commencement exercises in academic dress. In the past it has been the habit of the faculty to attend commencement in civilian clothes, but this year the teachers will wear caps and gowns.

Commencement exercises for the high school department of the College will be held on May 18. J. H. Beveridge, superintendent of schools at Omaha, will deliver the address. The College High School will join with the Maryville High School in baccalaureate Sunday exercises on May 15.

Those who will be graduated from the high school department are: Lawrence Sherlock, Ruth Hinton, Edna Morton, Thomas Lawrence, Eleanor Montgomery, Hazel Carr, Thelma Jackson, Nellie Cochran, Floyd Hall, David Bell, Thelma Tompkins, Floyd Wyman, and Ludema Nelson.

Four others will be graduated at the close of the summer term. They are: Mae Hull, Amanda Knizek, Paul Shonley, and Ellen McMillan.

DON'T USE BIG WORDS

Dedicated to Frank J. Klein

In the promulgating your esthetic cogitations or in articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychology observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversation possess clarified conciseness, compacted, comprehensiveness, consistent consistency and concatenated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations, flutulent garrulity, jejune blabberment and asinine affections. Let your extemporaneous declamations and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibly without rhodomontade or thesaurical bombast. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity pompous prolixity and verbosity. Shun double entendre and puerile procreancy, whether obscure or apparent.

Donald Dowell to Barnard
Donald Dowell, a former student at the College, will be principal of the Barnard High School next year. He has been principal at Guilford this year and his work has been of a high caliber.

Music Festival Starts Tonight and Ends Friday

Feature of Program to Be Artist's Recital Friday Night by Mme. Merle Alcock, Metropolitan Opera Co., Contralto.

The Sixth Annual Spring Music Festival, sponsored by the music department of the College, opens tonight with a program given by the conservatory graduates.

Miss Dottie Davis, a violin pupil of Miss Dvorak, Miss Winifred Dickey, Miss Elizabeth Mills, Miss Margaret Mills, Miss Hettie Mae Woodward and Mrs. Wayland Richards, all piano pupils of Mr. Annett, will appear in the evening performance.

The music organizations of the College will also appear on a program tomorrow night. The choral club, women's glee club, men's glee club, and orchestra will present a varied performance, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The final program of the Festival will be furnished by Madame Merle Alcock, Metropolitan Opera Co., contralto, who will give an artist's recital Friday night. Madame Alcock is a recognized singer and the College is fortunate to have her in a solo performance.

Admission will be 50 cents tonight and tomorrow night, and $1 for the Friday evening recital. Season tickets may be secured at Kuehn Bros. A major activity coupon will entitle students to a ticket for all three performances.

Dramatic Club Gives 2 One-Act Numbers

Last Tuesday night, the dramatic club presented an interesting program of two one-act plays. The first, "The Minuet" by Parker, depicted an impressive scene during the French Revolution. The actors wore the costumes of the period which added to the effect considerably.

The second play was "The Medicine Show" by Stuart Walker. It was first produced in his portmanteau theatre. While it is not noted for point or plot, it lends itself readily to character acting. From the reception the club gave this number, the actors are to be congratulated on their ability to carry a character roll.

Cups and Medals for Contests Go to All Parts of the District

Fifteen Hundred Representatives of Sixty-Six High Schools of Northwest Missouri Take Part in Events at the College Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.—For First Time in Many Years, Weather Conditions Are Good.—Competition Strong in All Events on Three-Day Program.

The annual Northwest Missouri High School Contests, in which nearly 1500 representatives of sixty-six schools took part, are a thing of the past. Last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Maryville was full to the brim with excited, happy high school boys and girls who came here to take part in the sixty-six different contests on the three-day program.

Outside of a downpour Friday night, Old Man Weather was kind to the contests, and for the first time in many years, sunshine greeted each day of the program. The contests were all run off on schedule time, and reports are that the visitors had a better time this year than ever in the past. The 115 gold and silver medals and the thirty-four loving cups are this week decorating trophy cases in all parts of the district.

Bearcat Tracksters Have Meet Saturday

Triangular Affair to Be Held With Missouri Wesleyan and Tarkio at Cameron.

The College track team will go to Cameron Saturday for a triangular track and field meet with Missouri Wesleyan College and Tarkio College. This will be the first meet of the year for the College Bearcats, and students of the school are anxiously looking forward to see what sort of a showing Coach Lawrence's men will make.

The Bearcat mentor will take a squad of at least eight men to Cameron with him. The trip will be made in automobiles, and the Bearcats will return to Maryville immediately after the meet.

Last year Maryville, Missouri Wesleyan, and Tarkio engaged in a triangular meet here. The Missouri Wesleyan tracksters won the meet, while St. T. C. was second. This year both other schools have been pointing their athletes toward the met of Saturday, and keen competition is expected.

The following men are certain of making the trip to Cameron, and it is possible that one or two others will be added to the squad:

Captain J. Smith, Ungles, Davenport, Wilson, Crane, Strong, Wakely, and Iolair. The last two named will take part in the field events, while the others will be in the track part of the meet.

Maryville and Benton Take Fine Arts Honor

Representation and Costume Design to Nodaway County School.—Poster and Annual to St. Joseph.

In the Fine Arts Contests, Maryville continued to show up well when Junior Curnutt and Harold Daniels won first places.

Daniels won first place and a gold medal in the representation contest, and Curnutt won his gold medal in the costume design contest.

Benton High School of St. Joseph won three places in this department. In the annual contest, Benton had the only entry—the Wahwaha-nawah—and captured a trophy cup without competition. Benton also won first and second on two posters sent in, and third honors were given Donald Neal of Harmony.

The Benton posters by Nadine Vineil and George Dupin, were in colors. Both had milk drinking as their subject. One was a take-off on the old woman who lived in a shoe, while the other was of a house with healthy children, where milk was a portion of the daily diet. Posters by Junior Curnutt and Carl Reimer, St. Patrick's school, failed to place.

Neal had a drawing of the College, well done in every respect. Miss Shelton Wilhite, art teacher at Westport High School, Kansas City, was the judge of all the fine arts contests.

Plan Baseball Tourney
Plans are under way for the intramural baseball tournament for girls, under the supervision of Miss Bruckner. At the present time there are about forty girls working out for the various teams and games are to be scheduled in the near future between the four classes.

Karl Akers to Guilford
Karl Akers, a student of the College, will be principal of the Guilford High School, beginning next September. Akers succeeded Donald Dowell, who goes to Barnard.

No school ran away with more than its share of the honors, as representatives from all over Northwest Missouri had a hand in the winnings.

Those students and teachers who came to Maryville by rail were given the advantage of a fare and a half on railroads since more than the required 150 presented certificates at the information table.

Music Contests Close

Mound City and Bethany ran a close race for the honors in the musical contests at the College last Friday. Mound City carried off three firsts, in Class A Orchestra, band and Boys' Quartet, and Bethany carried off two, in the Girls' Glee Club and Class A Chorus. However, Bethany went away with four seconds.

Maryville made a good showing, although she won first place in none of the contests. Rock Port and Cameron were also mentioned several times in the honors. Other honors were won by New Hampton, Edgerton, Burlington Junction, Pattonsburg, Albany, Excelsior Springs, Harmony Consolidated, Cainsville and Hamilton.

The orchestras and bands were for the most part well tuned and showed good work on the part of both the director and the members. The choruses were probably better done than the quartets, but both gave a good tone quality.

Piano Work Uniform

The piano work was good, and more uniform than it has been for several years. In fact, it was so difficult to decide upon the winners that a second contest was held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon between the four highest. As the result of this, first place went to Alice Doll of Hamilton, and second to Marian Gann of Maryville, a pupil of Mrs. Caldwell.

In the cornet contest, little Paul Smart of Pattonsburg won first place but could not be awarded the medal because he is but a grade school student. He was asked to play at the program Friday night and showed good work. Ray McCommas, who won first place, played twice at the Missouri Theatre Saturday night and was well received both times.

Elizabeth Pritchard of Tarkio, who won first place in the violin contest, played quite well. She was closely contested by Carl Reimer of Maryville, a pupil of Miss Dvorak.

The following are the results of all the music contests:

Rock Port Leads in Ind. Arts Contests

Junior Curnutt of Maryville Wins T-Square in Mechanical Drawing Competition.

Rock Port High School carried off first place in the Industrial Arts Contests. There were five schools entered with over twenty representative pieces of work and the winning projects were closely contested by several schools.

The display was judged by Mr. A. H. Wassor of the industrial arts department, Pittsburg, Kans., State Teachers College. Mr. Wassor said the display was a varied and interesting one and that it was difficult to choose a winner from so many different pieces of excellent high school work.

Junior Curnutt, a Maryville High School student, won the only prize offered in mechanical drawing, a 24-inch T-square with transparent unbroken blade. His project was a drawing of a clock, well proportioned and perfectly balanced on the page.

In Class A woodwork, a Rock Port student won first with a turned floor lamp, a piece of work that was almost perfect in detail.

Second place went to Harold Daniels of Maryville, who had a book rack as his project.

COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will reverence and obey the College laws and do our best to inculcate a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

UNTIL ANOTHER YEAR

The high school contests are over—until another year. Last week was a time of great activity at the College. Some fifteen hundred representatives from high schools all over Northwest Missouri were in Maryville as guests of the school for three days of hectic competition in all lines of activity.

Many high school superintendents, teachers, coaches, and even the students themselves have said that the contests this year were satisfactory in every respect. That verdict is what the College worked for. If the visitors were pleased, then the many hours of hard work in preparation for their entertainment were worth while.

College faculty members who were in charge of the various contests report that almost without exception the competition was stronger this year than ever before. This too is gratifying to the College, for it means that the contests are helping to make better musicians, better students, better orators and actors, and better athletes out of the high school boys and girls of Northwest Missouri.

With the handling of so many visitors, there were many mistakes made. All that were brought to the attention of the College were rectified. It is to be hoped that none went away from Maryville feeling that there was something wrong in any department of the contests.

And now, the contests are over—until next year. There is a breathing spell for everybody concerned, but already those in charge are beginning to check the weak points so that next year the contests will be bigger and better than ever before.

LOWER FEES; MORE MEMBERS

The Northwest Missouri High School Athletic Association has lowered its membership fees. This is a movement which has been hoped for, and which will undoubtedly make for a bigger and better organization next year.

In the first place, it is necessary that there be a district association. While all concerned feel that every bit of strength and push possible should be expended toward the furtherance of the State High School Athletic Association, still there comes the realization that the district association is necessary because it covers several matters which are not touched by the state body.

In the past the annual membership fees in the district association have been three dollars, with apenalty for late payment. Now the dues are one dollar. The penalty still stands, however, and rightfully should, because there is no need for the procrastination which has caused some schools to pay a total fee of six dollars this year.

The fee of three dollars was a burden to some of the smaller schools. The state association has a corresponding fee, and many smaller institutions felt that they could not afford the financial burden of membership in both.

The action of the district association is one of moral support for the state body. It also is a move which will make it possible for all schools, no matter how small, to belong to the state association and the district organization too.

Boys Tennis Tourney Starts Next Monday

Drawings Have Been Made.—Doubles and Singles to Be Played May 23.

Drawings have been made for the intramural tennis tournament at the College in both boys' singles and doubles.

The first rounds for the singles are to be played sometime before tomorrow, the second round to be completed before Thursday, May 12. The semi-finals are to be out of the way by Thursday, May 19, and the final match is scheduled for Monday, May 23.

In the doubles for boys, the first series of games must be taken care of before next Monday; second round before Monday, May 16, and the finals are to be played Monday, May 23.

All rounds, up to the finals, are to be two out of three sets, according to Coach Jones, who is in charge of the tournament.

The drawings for the first round of the singles were as follows: Hall and Strong, Johnson and Wakley, R. Beum and Tindall, Ross and Beret, Pflaumer and Ferguson, Jones and Adams, Magee and B. Beam, Craig and Baldwin, Orano and Lawrence, Saunders and Connor.

In the doubles there are nine teams entered. Adams and Glenn are to play Brown and McPherson, and the winners of this match have a game with Saunders and Magee. The next game on the schedule is Johnson and Tindall vs. Ferguson and Smith. Beam and Beam are to play Pflaumer and Craig, Joy and Beret have a game against Orano and Wakley.

SITTING IN OUR PLACES

In Assembly is mighty fine, ESPECIALLY IF YOU ARE A SENIOR. Even the Freshmen May console themselves With the thought That some day THEY WILL BE SENIORS, Maybe. Anyhow, OUR STUDENT COUNCIL, ASKS That we sit in our places And pass in our turn. LET'S MAKE THIS One of our traditions. YOU SAY "SURE" N'est-ce pas?

Latent Talent Discovered in Many Popular Students of the College

Perhaps one of the most notable achievements of the year goes to the credit of the Northwest Missourian staff. Latent talent everywhere exhibits itself sooner or later in some form of perfection. However, never before this year has so much ability been discovered in any one branch. In fact it is seldom that many persons in any educational institution evidence interest in the same or similar occupations.

Several writers and authors have been found who with the necessary training should astound the world with their ideas. On the face of it, this is a thing of little consequence. But no, this is not the case. After you have glanced over the list of titles and works now in all stages of completion you will surmise and perhaps in a measure be able to grasp the immensity of the project. Persons who never in the mind of even the least critical could be connected with anything so arduous as the writing of a book, have shown to the world that they have seriously undertaken to prove the fallacy of such reasoning.

The following represent a part of what the writers of the school are doing in this light and a remarkable insight into the lives and activities of individuals is given. Here are the titles most of which have not as yet been completed but are well under process of construction: Smokers Economics Byron Beavers How to Dance Closs The Sea Beast or Life on the Bounding

Main Wm. McCullough Technique and Strategy (Text on Modern Warfare) Robert James Tonsorial Decoration Sewall Lost Hope (a poem) Higgins School Government, Theory and Practice John King Points on Pugilism Gile and Phipps How to Become a Social Success Graham Malotte The Dawn of Love Howard Triggs

These in the main represent the works to date. However, we understand that several more of the erstwhile authors about the place are contemplating the matter. From what we have been able to gather from those who should be in a position to know about these young men, we learn that "Sheenie" Wilson and "Shuck" Graham have at last allowed the barriers of reserve and modesty to be torn down and that their friends have prevailed upon them to write at least an article, if not a book on something that is of interest to all of the students in the school. The general thesis will be, "How to Become Popular" or "Keeping IN With the Big Boys About the Institution".

We shall look forward anxiously to the completion of these works to encourage more of the students who have ability along these lines to contribute their ideas. Who knows but there may be several potential George Jean Nathans and H. L. Menckens in the school. In the meantime, more power to the writers.

High School Notes

Nishnabotna School Notes

The results of the annual school election, April 5th, show that the people are in favor of continuing their school which is well on its way to improvement, having this year three years of approved high school work. We are grateful from the very bottom of our hearts to our patrons who think that we deserve and need a school.

The attendance at Sunday School last Sunday was 53 and collection, $2.54. We consider this a good record considering the fact that the roads were in very bad condition and the weather very unfavorable. We are looking forward to the Sunday with one hundred attendance. Help us go over the top.

We are very much grieved to announce the death of Mr. Perry Everett Huffman who was president of our Board of Education. Mr. Huffman was a real man and always stood and worked for the better things of the community in which he lived.

High School Notes

Yeuell Hash was presented with a gold medal in assembly Wednesday morning. His essay on "One Day" took first place in the Literary Contest at King City.

On May 20, the classes of H. S. will hold an inter-class literary contest. The events will be oration, debate, declamation, extemporaneous speaking and music. The winning class will be presented a loving cup.

Miss Richia Gromer, who is attending the University at Columbia, and a graduate of '26, will teach at the Conestoga school next winter.

Prof. Luther A. Foster, our efficient superintendent, has been re-employed for the coming year.

Paul Hoyt, a member of the freshman class, died at Dr. Rose's hospital in Albany, Thursday night. He was taken to the hospital Saturday evening where he underwent a very serious operation for appendicitis. He will be missed by all the school.

Liberty High School

In a tryout for the debate team to represent Liberty High School in the William Jewell College Invitation meet April 15, John Piburn and Ruth Gill were chosen to bear L. H. S. colors against her rival school.

Coach Lonborg is making every effort to win points in the William Jewell Field Contest on his half mile relay team composed of E. Weicker, Capt., Curtis Hutcherson, Carl Hutcherson, and Geo. Neff. The team runs daily against the college relay team. The Hutchersons are expected to cop points in the 440 yard dash and one half mile run.

Monday on the William Jewell Tennis courts members of the High School Tennis squad held an elimination contest to find the best to represent L. H. S. in the Tennis Tournament. Coach Lonborg's selections were: W. Rothwell, D. Albright, H. Wayman, and D. Bush.

Liberty High School will soon be presented with a splendid tennis court given by the W. C. T. U. of Liberty. Rapid progress is being made and soon members of the tennis team will take their daily practice.

Thursday, April 11th, the Fortnightly Study Club of Liberty held their annual girls' Literary Contest. Medals were presented to the following winners:

ners: piano, Minnie Irving Gilmore; voice, Margaret Blagg; extemporaneous speaking, Louisa Kranz, declamation, Lula Crockett; essay, Mary Keetch.

Virginia Boetge won first place in the tryout for the William Jewell Contest held in conjunction with the Fortnightly Contest.

Miss Ruth Weyand, a junior, won first place in the Star's Oratorical Contest over three class mates, but she was defeated in the County Contest by Glenn Duncan of Excelsior Springs.

Wednesday, the State Inspector of Schools, W. W. Gibboney, visited the high school. He visited various classes and talked to the student body in assembly as well as to the American Problem classes.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday morning, the song service was led by Kenneth Tebow. A discussion was held on the topic "The true relationship between men and women in college". Elizabeth Mills sang a group of songs: "In an Old Fashioned Garden", "Come to the Fair" and "Pirate Dreams."

All boys are invited to attend the next meeting, which will be held Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. A good discussion of a topic of interest to all is promised. The topic will be "An Ideal Boy Friend", as discussed at the last meeting of the Y. W. This is a good opportunity for the boys to see how they measure up to the standards set by the girls.

How the Needs of the Time Have Affected Our Aims

The athletic type is gaining today. In order to develop this type one must have good health. Some knowledge of foods is essential to continued good health. Improper selection of foods is the greatest cause of sickness. In order to help relieve this situation courses in foods and nutrition are offered in our high schools.

Since girls are entering nearly every line of work, refinement, poise and social ease are becoming more of an asset if not an essential to success. Home Economics endeavors to develop this balance through classroom and social activities.

Girls and boys as well as older people want to look their best. They desire to know what they should wear. The principles of art as applied to dress in costume design and clothing courses have a marked effect upon the appearance and development of students. The relative value of the many products of creative chemistry has made it necessary for the consumer of today to know textiles.

The trend toward extravagance in modern dress and household furnishings is the cause of much social unrest. This has brought into our schools the study of the family budget and the idea of intelligent buying.

Everyone appreciates a well cooked and artistically served meal. Girls are eager to enter classes in meal service. Through participation in these courses, they begin to realize the cost in labor and time necessary to serve these meals in the home. They are willing to accept more responsibility in the home. This has its influence on accepting responsibility outside the home. This helps to develop a social conscience. They soon see that in order to be a social success, they must also be a moral success.

Madona Davidson of Grant City is attending College here this term. She has been teaching near Grant City.

Plattsburg Wins Fast Girls' Meet; 5 Records Fall

Princeton, Represented by But Two Contestants, Scores 19½ Points to Take Second Place.

The girls' track meet was a fast one this year with five of the old records shattered and another tied.

Plattsburg won the meet with 22 points, and Princeton came second with 19½ points.

Bernadine O'Conner of Plattsburg, was high point winner of the meet, taking first place in three events. This was only repeat history for Miss O'Conner, as she did the same thing last year.

Another interesting thing of the meet was the work of the two representatives from Princeton, Marian Lambert and Pauline Stanley. Miss Lambert did some fast running in the dashes, and Miss Stanley broke two records.

Following is a summary of the events as they were run off and the winners of each event:

60-yard dash: first, O'Conner, Plattsburg; second, Lambert, Princeton; third, Shaw, Savannah; fourth, Irwin, Helena. 7.6 seconds.

Low hurdles: first, O'Conner, Plattsburg; second, Harrold, Coffey; third, Stuart, Daleview; fourth, Harrington, Coffey. 12 seconds (equalling record).

Broad jump: first, Goolsby, Fortescue; second, Irwin, Helena; third, Howard, Weston; fourth, Stanley, Princeton, and Hall, Savannah, tied. 13 feet, 9½ inches.

High jump: first, West, Altamont, and Carroll, Grant City, tied; third and fourth, Stewart, Daleview; Fetting, Grant City; Hall, Savannah and Brownlee, Savannah. 4 feet 5 1-4 inches, breaking old record of 4 feet 5 inches.

Baseball throw: first, Stanley, Princeton; second, Sloan, Daleview; third, Harrold, Coffey; fourth, Howard, Weston. 189 feet, breaking old record of 186 feet.

75-yard dash: first, O'Conner, Plattsburg; second, Lambert, Princeton; third, Shaw, Savannah; fourth, Irwin, Helena. 9.5 seconds.

Shuttle relay: first, Savannah (Shaw Rowe, Brownlee, Kent, Howard and Hines); second, Daleview; third, Plattsburg; fourth, Coffey. 41.9 seconds, breaking old record of 44.2 seconds.

Basketball throw: first, Stanley, Princeton; second, Lambert, Princeton; third, Underwood, DeKalb; fourth, Hine, Savannah. 92 feet 4½ inches, breaking old record of 72 feet, 2 inches.

Warrensburg Athlete Wins at Penn Relays

Vernon Kennedy, a student of the Warrensburg State Teachers College, captured the inter-collegiate all-around athletic laurels of the year by winning the decathlon championship at the Pennsylvania relay carnival, held at Philadelphia, April 30.

Kennedy finished the ten-event test, which continued over eight hours, with a score of 7,236.5575, breaking the mark of 7,126.5575, which was set by Tony Plansky of Georgetown last year.

He carried off three first places, taking first in the discus, shotput and javelin; and tied for first in the pole vault. Kennedy also won places in two of the three events that broke carnival decathlon records. He was third in the 110-meter hurdles, fourth in the 1,500 meter run, sixth in 400 meter run and high jump; seventh in the broad jump and tied for seventh in the 100 meter dash.

New Quarters More Comfortable than Old Ones, Librarian Says

"The new library is much more comfortable than the old," said Mr. Wells, the college librarian. "We have more space, better light, better ventilation. There is less noise from the halls. We can handle the circulation of books much more efficiently, due to the increased facilities for arranging them." It is not expected that the spring quarter will affect greatly the work in the library. If more help is needed, there are students on the waiting list who will be called upon.

The new library is well equipped with tables for study. A number of new chairs will be added in the near future, or in time to take care of the increased number of summer term students.

A large number of new books have been added this term. There are several new volumes on Child Study, on modern Social and Political problems, on new phases of Chemistry, and an interesting biography of the Italian leader, Ignatius Loyola. Students of foreign languages will find plenty of new material in their particular language.

The following is a partial list of the new books:

Groves, E. R.—Wholesome Childhood.
Skinn, M. W.—The Biography of a Baby.
Abbott, E. H.—On the Training of Parents.

Porter, C. W.—The Carbon Compounds.
Sneed, M. O.—General Inorganic Chemistry.

Waldo, Frank—Elementary Meteorology.
Fisher, Irving—Prohibition at Its Worst.

Ford, E. C.—Spanish Fables in Verse.
Marcel Dorado, Carolina—Española Pintoresca.

Martinez Sierra—El Palacio Triste.
Lo Braz, Anatole—Contes Bretons.
Lazare, Jules—Les Plus Jolies Contes de Pees.

Galloway, T. W.—The Biology of Sex.
Bancroft, J. H.—Games of the Playground.

Gruber, Max von—Hygiene of Sex.
Downing, E. R.—The Third and Fourth Generation.

Psychology Class to Inspect Institution

Miss Franklen and Group of Students Go to Marshall for Study on Sunday and Monday.

Miss Katherine Franklen and her psychology class of about twenty people are making plans to visit the institution for the Feeble Minded at Marshall, Mo., next Sunday and Monday.

The class will leave here at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and return some time Monday.

The purpose of the trip is to study the different types of feeble mindedness and to show how the over-secretion or under-functioning of glands influence the mental make up of people.

Miss Franklen says the trip promises to be an interesting and profitable one. The man at the head of the institution is one of the best in that field in the United States. During the war he did work in France and at the present time is making experiments, which are bringing wonderful results, with the inmates at the Marshall institution.

He will have a guide show the class through the building, and will himself give lectures on the various types of feeble mindedness, and will have actual cases brought before the class to illustrate his lectures.

Miss Franklen took in Marshall for two years and she says a study which the students will have the privilege of making will be very valuable.

Election of May Queen Thursday; Fete Is May 18

Out of Five Nominees of Today, One Will Get Honor, While Others Will Be Attendants.—Elaborate Plans Being Made.

A May Queen is to be chosen tomorrow by a general election of the student body. Preliminaries were held today, and the five girls receiving the highest number of votes will be voted on in the finals tomorrow.

The one securing the most votes in the finals will be the May Queen, and the other four will be her maids of honor.

In the past it has been the policy to have the Tower Queen act as Queen of the May, but because of the use of a queen for each class in the Tower, the election was necessary.

Dr. Saxman, head of the women's physical education department, announces that the May Fete will be held on Wednesday, May 18, in front of the College administration building.

The May Fete this year is different in several features and promises to be a very interesting and lively one. The Washington, Franklin and Demonstration schools are to furnish the smaller grade children for the Fete, while the College High School and all the girls of the College enrolled in any physical education classes are to be represented in the celebration.

Miss Saxman said yesterday that in the past the Fete had been a longer affair than it was to be this year. Everything will be arranged to start the celebration at 4:30 and plans are being made to shorten the program so it can be given in one hour's time.

The physical education department will be assisted by the music students, both the orchestra and the girl's glee club giving several numbers in the course of the program.

Maryville High Home Economics Entrants Score

Representatives of the Maryville High School showed up well in the Home Economics Contests held at the College last Thursday. R. Dell Chick, Frances Lauber and Leola Miller, representing the high school in meal planning and serving, won first place in Class A. In the clothing contests, Virginia Braun of Maryville won first in undergarments and Lorene Galbreath of Savannah took second place. Miss Galbreath of Savannah won first in outer garments and Mary Donna Malotte took second honors for Maryville.

Florence Wray of Maryville took bed making honors in Class A for Northwest Missouri. In the food contest Savannah won second in Class A. The B class winners were: first, Plattsburg; second, Excelsior Springs.

The winning menus were:

Hamilton First Place Winner in Dramatics Group

Maryville High School Takes Silver Cup in Picture Study Tableau—Competition Always Keen.

The play, "Poor Madeline," presented by the Hamilton High School, won first place in the high school contests in dramatics Thursday night in the College auditorium. Maryville took second place with the play "The Vanishing Princess," and Coffey ranked third, presenting "The Valiant." The plays were witnessed by an interested crowd that almost filled the auditorium to its capacity, and a vote of the audience would have resulted in a variety of opinion.

In picture study tableau, the silver cup went to the Maryville High School, on its representation, "Feeding the Birds," from the celebrated painting by the French artist, Millet. Those who took part were Mary Henderson, Virginia Miller, and Nellie Russell. The background was painted by Junior Curnutt, who won first place in the representation contest.

Gower also had a very interesting tableau and took second place by a narrow margin to first, with "The Broken Pitcher," by Gruet.

Third Play Popular
The rivalry in dramatics always has been keen in the annual contests here and this year proved no exception. Opinions among the audience varied widely as to the best of the three plays which survived the afternoon preliminaries.

Hamilton, the winner, had the most difficult place on the evening's program, following the two tableaux and the other two plays. A storm was threatened and the audience was restless. The Hamilton representatives proceeded undisturbed in the fantasy by Louise Saunders which occupied three scenes. The play depicted the land of fantasy, where happiness reigned, clung to the world of hard knocks, then returned to the original setting where love was redeemed.

Lucille Mitchell, Mary K. McAdoo and Kenneth Kineaid composed the cast of "Poor Madeline." Miss Myrtle Hankins, a former State Teachers College student, directed the winning play. All setting were especially attractive.

Maryville's second-place play was "The Vanishing Princess," by John

Golden. The action centered about a novelty shop. It was a story of "pay your rent or get out," with a good Samaritan who appeared in time to fall in love with the girl in the shop and provided money in great abundance.

In the Maryville cast were Paul Bratcher, Marzella Clary, Wilson Dowden, Carl Fisher, Frank Fisher, Ruth Kramer, Earl Somerville, Laura Warner, Catherine and Florence Wray. Miss Anna R. Crane directed the Maryville play.

Rivalry Always Keen
Exceptionally popular with the audience was the play rated third by the judge. "The Valiant," by Hall and Middlemass, presented by the Coffey school. The emotional acting of Frances Gotschall as the girl in this play was outstanding. Paul Martin, as a convict waiting for the hour of his execution, also was thoroughly satisfactory.

Miss Gotschall, in the scene in which she sought to identify the prisoner as a missing brother, succeeded in bringing tears to the eyes of many persons in her audience. Again there was a complete hush in the scene in which the warden and priest prepared the prisoner for his march to the execution room. The curtain was drawn as the trio marched through the door of the death chamber.

Others in the Coffey cast were Paul Thompson, Kermit Everly, Glenn Knott, and Richard Welden. The director was Harry McKory.

Miss Shelton Wilhite, of Westport High School, Kansas City, was the judge of the plays.

Contestants in Agr. Make High Ratings

Nature of Contests Call for Careful Grading in Livestock and Grain Judging.

Reports on the agricultural contests were not available the first of this week because of the nature of the contests.

In Livestock Judging, Class A, the Albany team carried off first honors with Maryville running the ma close second. Maryville High School took third place in the event.

In the individual livestock judging, Lorin Massie representing the Albany High School, first place; Hans Nielson of Maryville, second; and Olin Wilson of Albany, third.

In Class B, Barnard won first place; Helena, second; and Holt High School, third with their livestock judging teams. Clarence Ladage of Helena won first in the individual contest, Class B, Ernest Tritten of Helena, second; and Raymond Hamilton of Holt, third.

Savannah's team took first place in grain judging, Class A, with 1223 points, while Grant City followed with 1217. Maryville took third place in this event.

In the individual contest of this class, S. Weller of Albany made a total of 451 points, taking first place. Merlin Bauman, Savannah, second; and Lim Patterson, Savannah, third.

The grain judging team from Holt carried off first place in Class B, McFall took second and Hopkins third.

In the individual contests, Class B, Mildred Albright of McFall took first place, G. Crane, Barnard, second; and Rex Bernard, Holt, third.

The contestants were given some judging to perform and then a written examination to determine the reason for their placing the stock or grain as they did. All the papers were the original work of the students, without any outside help from other students, instructors, or coaches.

In high school assembly, a program was given by some students of the College. Genevieve Dietrich gave a reading, "Katy Did". Katherine Gray sang three songs, "Minnetonka", "Ghost Brides", and "Pale Moon".

Thelma Brown gave the setting and story of the "Miracle" which she saw in Kansas City. Miss Franklin talked to the group.

166 Enrolled in 'Five-weeks Short Course at S. T. C.

There are 166 people enrolled for the short course which opened last Monday morning at the College.

The people entering the short course are allowed to carry a maximum of two classes a day, each class meeting twice daily and netting two and one-half hours college credit, or a total of five hours for the five weeks work.

Only one additional instructor was added to the faculty to care for the students. Mr. Somerville, county superintendent of Nodaway County schools is teaching two classes.

At present the students are in the midst of their work and everything is moving smoothly for the people who are taking the work given during the short term.

These students are availing themselves of the opportunity to receive a maximum of fifteen hours credit, during the vacation in their schools. By attending both the short course and the summer term they will be able to teach next year, and at the same time will have fifteen hours more work toward their degree. Many students are working on their degree, and teaching at the same time, and are attending the short course and summer term.

The following students registered for the five weeks short course: Edith Colman, Myrtle Quinlan, Ruby Jennings, Helen Senlock, W. K. James, Erma Walkup, Martha Brandt, Hazel Wilson, Earl Gray, O. K. Coffman, Charline McHugh, Jay Planalp, Kathryn Liley, Elouise Littell, Ruby Grady, Loyd Glenn, Veronica Glenn, Anna Steph, Margaret Sillers, Cecil Gaines, Elmore Turner, Thomas Turner, Cricette Kirk, Paul Ousley, Maurine Farmer, Kassie Le Here, Carl Fisher, Jerome Prather, Max Reigard, Lora Bauer, Hazel Ward, Agnes Ceman, Riva Kent, Hazel Hillsbeck, Lucille Clark, Mary Meyer, Wilma Laughlan, Thelma Garner, Loyd Marshall, Erle Beattie, Minnie LaFale, Harry Burr, Mellicie Waddilove, Gertrude Dale.

Doris Walker, Ruth Billups, Madona Davidson, Mamie Adams, Ruth Minnick, Baby Pugh, Lorraine Glaze, Irene Goff, Mildred Cole, Veda Newman, Mildred Montgomery, Edith Jenkins, Eltha Hinderson, Pearl Parker, Russell Ruhl, Pauline Ringold, Jane Swinford, Lulu Eychaner, Lois Baldock, Mary Gex, Leroy Elam, Grace Alexander, Marvin Collins, Grace Hall, Alma Byran, Ray Trimble, Gladys Hasckell, Mary Prost, Carliss Craver, Vera Kunz, Clarence Worley, J. Girl Who Has Personality, Knows Home-Making, Is Healthy, Uses Cosmetics but Little, and Does Not Pet; Boy Who Is Good Mixer, Scholar, Well Groomed, Willing to Treat Woman as Equal, and Who Is Clean, Are Ideal Pals, "Y." Groups Decree

Last week the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. held meetings in which were discussed the comradeship of men and women in college. Each group discussed the different phases of character most admired in men or women, which were considered necessary for the ideal comrade to possess. Each organization sent its conclusions to the other, and the results are most interesting.

One cannot read them and persist in the idea that the young people of today have lost the high ideals, and the true appreciation of what is of real value in life which their predecessors had.

Copies of the letters follow:
Maryville, Missouri,
April 28, 1927.
President of the Y. W. C. A.
Dear Madam:

I, as a representative of the Y. M. C. A., of the College, am taking this opportunity of telling you what we believe would constitute an ideal girl comrade. We have not been hasty in coming to a decision as to just what qualifications are necessary; as we realize the importance of the question of choosing a mate, to every young man and young woman. Upon this choice depends the future happiness of both men and women and furthermore, we feel that we have not been unreasonable in our qualifications. We strove to be liberal and practical. So, with these things in view I shall give you the eleven qualifications for an ideal girl comrade.

First, we would want one who is a social and church worker. That is, she should have christian ideals with the interest of the people of her community at heart and a willingness to do social work in the community.

Our second thought would be one who has a good, lively personality. A man wants a comrade who will keep him guessing, keep him wondering what she is going to say or do next, and keep the conversation going.

Thirdly, why shouldn't a man have a comrade who is interested in the things in which he is? Is there anything more boring than a date when the man and woman want to talk about, see, or hear entirely different things? If there is it would be two such dates.

Our fourth request is that a girl comrade be of equal intelligence to the boy friend. We do not insinuate that girls are inferior mentally to men but we mean that the girl should be as far along in school or at least striving to the same rank. It would be a grave mistake for a boy, in college, to go with a girl who had only finished the eighth grade, even though they are the same age.

Fifth, we think a girl comrade should have good health. This is a thing that may be had and kept by good habits of living, unless interfered with by certain inherent traits.

Sixth, we believe a girl comrade should have talent along one or more lines. One may have a college education and still not be talented. It need not be a talent in music or literary work but may be merely a talent for developing interest in anything, or entertaining, and so on.

On seventh thought we believe a girl should have ideals of home making. In this day most homes are not happy ones, we want a girl who is happy in her home or can make a home happy if her ideals were put into effect.

Eighth, we want a girl who is neat and attractive. This does not mean that she is to be extravagant in dress and actions but that she use care in putting on what clothes she has and that she carry herself in an attractive manner.

And, ninth, we think she should be conservative in the use of cosmetics, that is, she should not make it possible for any company to become rich on the sale of those precious articles.

Our tenth qualification may seem strange and unnatural but we want a girl who does not pet. We want one who does not permit every Tom, Dick, and Harry to be free with her when he has only been with her a few times. Some men delight in playing with a woman's affections. Beware of them.

Eleventh, last, but not least, and with all seriousness we want one who has some consideration for a man's pocketbook.

In summing up I should say that any girl who can meet the above qualifications would be an ideal comrade for a young man. We tried to make qualifications that any girl could meet. In meeting these, girls need not be alike. In fact, we would not want all girls to be exactly alike and a girl comrade who would suit one might be a pain to another. We feel that if any girl lives up to our ideal she would be much better than if she goes through life in a haphazard way without following any set principles.

Sincerely yours,
Y. M. C. A.

State Teachers' College,
May 2, 1927.

The Y. M. C. A.,
State Teachers' College.

Dear Friends and Co-workers:

We are proud to report to you our findings on the question of the relationships of men and women as discussed at our regular meeting last Tuesday morning. We believe them inspiring and stimulating, and we hope that their influence may be felt on our campus. We shall try to discuss for you, in a very informal way, the characteristics which the girls gave for their ideal boy companion and the things that true comradeship involves. We believe that the points gleaned from our discussion accord with Jesus' teaching and also with that which is deepest and best in one's life apart from any biblical authority.

We want our ideal boy companion to be a Christian. This requisite should need no discussion since we are writing to young men of the Y. M. C. A. True companionship cannot be possible without being spiritually congenial. Although nothing might be said directly about it, there would be an indefinable something lacking and mutual understanding to the fullest extent would be absent.

We want our companion to be a real friend. We want him to be a pal just the same as we want another girl for a pal. There may be even stronger friendships between men and women. We do not want the boy or the girl to be stilted in their manner toward the other, but we want them to be their real selves. We believe that respect is the basis of friendship and that there can be no growth without common interests and understanding. We do not approve of the boy who confines his girl friends to only one. We feel that he should be broader-minded than that.

We want our companion to be courteous. We still admire the gallantry of the knights of old and expect it from the knight of today. We appreciate thoughtfulness of little things and kindly consideration at all times. We do not want the modern independence of woman to cause men to forget old-fashioned chivalry.

We want to be treated as an equal in every way. We expect to command respect for our thoughts, ideas, and plans. We believe that college men and women should pursue worthwhile and intellectual subjects in conversation and should stimulate each other's thinking. The man should seek to discover the girl's interests and abilities as well as to laud his own accomplishments. Conversation should be a mutual give and take proposition.

We want our pal to be a good mixer and full of pep. Just because he is a Christian and striving to cultivate the best ideals of conduct is no reason why he should not be a jolly fellow and ready for a good time. We want him to be friendly, loyal to our College, and not afraid to show his school spirit.

We want our companion to stand for the highest ideals of scholarship. We do not care if he does not make "B" grades but we do expect him to be a real student with the right attitude toward his work. We do not want him to be a bookworm but an alert, thinking young man, awake to his opportunities and responsibilities. We want him to have a plentiful supply of good common sense and know how and when to use it.

We want him to have sympathy, sense, initiative and courage. We want him to be a good sport but not to the extent of sacrificing his standards and ideals for the popularity of the group. We want him to have firm beliefs and convictions and not afraid to stand by them even though he be forced to stand alone. Only in this way could the extent of his resolve be tested.

We want him to be well groomed. We are not concerned with physical beauty but we do demand neatness in appearance and appropriateness in dress.

Last, but not least, we want our boy companion to be as clean and pure morally as he expects the girl he marries to be. We believe in a 50-50 proposition. We maintain that the single standard is the only just standard. In John 8:1-4 Jesus shows a similar opinion. He challenges the scribes and Pharisees, who look with contempt upon the sinful woman, to look upon themselves and see if they are guiltless. If petting and promiscuous relations with men cheapen the girl, similar relations with girls also cheapen the boy. A boy has no more reason to "try out" a girl than a girl has to "try out" a boy. If it is true that boys form their standards from girls they are with, perhaps it is also true that girls form their standards from their boy friends. If young men and women could only be good enough friends so that they would discuss these problems together and seek to follow the dictates of their consciences, ideals would nearly become practices. We believe that petting robs love of its value and virtue. Certain privileges should be given to a life partner that otherwise should not be given. There is the halfway place where many men stop but they are not real men. It is so much holier and better for them to remain at the beginning. A boy is not a sissy because he refrains from petting. He is rather a more manly character because he has the courage of his convictions and the will-power to obey them.

We have been very frank and very much in earnest as we are sure you will be with us. We are glad of the opportunity of working with you and we hope that these two Christian organizations may work together more in the future. We feel that it depends upon us as Christian young men and women to set the highest standards of character and right living in our college. Let us take for our motto: "Make Christ campus commander." If the popular thing is right let's make Christ and His teaching popular. Jesus' last request to His disciples—his students—was: "Tell my story to men." He told them to begin right where they were—at Jerusalem. Let us, as his students, begin on our own campus. And the best way to tell His story is through our daily lives and associations with college friends and classmates. What is your first duty as a Christian on the campus of a Christian school? Is it to make high grades? Is it to get on the team? Is it to be a member of the leading fraternity? No. Your first duty is to live the best kind of life that you possibly can—it is to try to follow Christ and His teachings in every phase of life. Jesus said: "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think of these things." You have thought. You know what is highest and best in the relationships of men and women.

Now, we ask you not to be a sponge and only absorb inspiration, but to be a radium and reflect it.

Yours most sincerely,
The Y. W. Girls.

The Stroller

By I f f f

Last week the Stroller strolled out of the printing just as the printers were making up the Northwest Missourian. Consequently, he was left out of her usual space.

But here it is this week, bigger than ever before. Forgive the omission, but the Stroller couldn't help strolling.

At last the annual contests are over, and what a relief it is to be able to go to the morning classes and not be worrying for fear that you will miss part of the contests. It seems that the teachers were just as impatient as the Stroller was, and were just as anxious for the bell to ring.

During the three days of the contests the Stroller strolled three hundred and sixty three miles, up and down the halls trying to find a good news story that would satisfy the Editor Man, but she had to give up the ship, at exactly 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Friday afternoon he strolled out to watch the girls track meet, and while there, she had an argument with Joel Trullinger on the subject of "Who was the best looking girl entered". Of course Joel would have to be contrary and disagree with everything that the Stroller would say, (he surely has been talking to the Editor of this paper) and insisted that the Stroller was no judge of beauty. The Stroller would like to have Joel agree with her but he still insists, and will maintain, until it has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt, that Olin Wakely, Leo Cox, "Onsey" Fouts, and the Stroller constitute a committee capable of passing judgment on all contestants, relative to their beauty, and should be allowed to score them accordingly. We refuse to make known the name of the particular beauty in question, but the Stroller is willing to bet that some of the boys may be seen on the road to Savannah in the near future, and also that when a certain senior of Weston enrolls at the College next fall that her waiting list will be a mile long, with Olin Wakely at the head of the list.

The Royal Arch Preservers entertained Paye Daniels and her new room-mates Friday night in Paye's room. This is a new organization on the campus and has met with the approval of social circles everywhere.

"Mamma, Doc," Inez Pierpoint and Happy Higgins served on the entertainment committee. For refreshments, the girls ate the eggs they found in the rabbits nests Easter Sunday.

When Fred King invited Tressie Clark and Frank Klein home with him to spend the Easter vacation, he had not expected the dire catastrophe which followed their arrival.

Much to his surprise when he read the "Evening Effort," he found listed among the visitors in the society column, two, Teresa Montrose-Clark and F. Durant Klein of Philadelphia, who were reported visiting himself.

Nw what is there about a trip like that to make one put on such airs and even change the name and go incognito for the occasion?

Wednesday night at Mr. Annett's solo class, during a solemn explanation of the first number, a young lady popped her head from behind the curtain and announced "The King of Rumania". "The King" appeared arrayed in a red wig, yellow scarf, and red robe, much to the amusement of the class.

Mr. Annett thought it a very good and original joke, but what about the two behind the curtain who had not expected an audience. Kids will be kids.

Supplementing the prize bonhead of last week comes one that startled the Stroller out of a year's growth.

A student of the College, after bidding his landlady good-bye and clutching his wife firmly by the arm, hurriedly made his way to the Wabash station to catch the evening train for Burlington Junction. Much to his surprise, train time came around and the train did not show up. Beginning to worry, for fear his father would go home and leave him, he became nervous and a bit angry. Finally he could stand it no longer, and approaching the ticket window, he asked in rather a belligerent tone why the train did not put in an appearance. He was informed that the evening train did not run beyond Maryville and further admonished not to get "so hard". Disgruntled, he slowly made his way back to the room and knocked for admittance.

When he had cooled down sufficiently to explain the situation to the landlady he did so. Lo! and behold! as if to add insult to injury he discovered a jug of water which he had intended taking home for drinking purposes sitting on the floor beside the door. No gentle reader, he had not forgotten it in the first place. In the heat of anger he had carried it all the way back from the station.

The surprising part of the whole performance is the fact that he lives with a block of the transfer track where the train "flies up" for the night and should have known that the train did not make the run. Now we ask you, isn't that funny?

Net Honors to St. Joe Central Players Thrice

Buchanan County School Captures Championship in Boys' and Girls' Singles and Girls' Doubles in District Tournament Here.

Tennis teams representing St. Joseph Central carried off net honors last week in the district high school tennis tournament held at the College.

Miss Lett of Central won the girls' singles by defeating a Chillicothe entrant in one of the best battles of the day. The margin of victory in the sets was very narrow, the first being 4-6; second, 7-5; third, 7-5.

Central also took first honors in girls' doubles by defeating Savannah, 6-2, 6-3.

Hanna of Central continued the winning of Central by defeating McLane of Savannah, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2, in boys' singles.

In a hard-fought battle Saturday afternoon, L. Moulton and E. Lingie, representing Bethany High School, defeated Thompson and Stevenson of Tarkio, 5-7, 6-1, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, and retained the championship in boys' doubles which they won in 1926.

All the games were played on the new courts and were of a high calibre for high school students. The rain Thursday night did not injure the courts and they were in fine shape for the contests.

In the boys' play at the College courts Friday and Saturday, Mitchell Brown of Chillicothe won from H. Hendrick of Tarkio 6-3 6-3; Norval Saylor of Hopkins defeated R. Bowman of Cameron 6-1 7-5; Frank Hanna of St. Joseph Central won from Ermann Barrett of Maryville 6-0 6-1; Gore of Rock Port defeated J. Hilson of Bethany 6-0, 6-0. McLane of Savannah, Mowry of Graham, M. Kilburn of Laredo and Smith of Ridgeway drew byes for the first round.

In the second round McLane of Savannah won from Brown of Chillicothe 8-6 6-2; Saylor of Hopkins defeated Mowry of Graham 6-3 7-5; Hanna of St. Joseph Central won from Kilburn of Laredo 6-3 6-2; and Gore of Rock Port defeated Smith of Ridgeway 7-5 6-2.

In the semi-finals McLane of Savannah upset Gore when he won from Saylor of Hopkins in a tight match 6-4 7-9 6-4. Hanna of St. Joseph Central continued in his winning by defeating Gore of Rock Port 6-4 4-6 6-0.

In the men's doubles Hopkins, Chillicothe, Graham, Maryville and Savannah went into the second round by drawing byes, and Blythedale won from Excelsior Springs by forfeit. Bethany doubles composed of the same team which won the doubles championship last year, L. Moulton and E. Lingie, won from St. Joseph Central 6-1 6-4.

The Central team were Good and Strop. The Tarkio team, J. Stevenson and M. Thompson won from Francis and Byron Linville of Skidmore 6-3 6-1. In the second round Blythedale won from Hopkins 7-5 6-4. The Hopkins team was composed of Mahan and Mutti while the Blythedale team was Hohn and Herrald. Bethany won from Tom Botsford and J. Zwahlen of Chillicothe 6-3 6-0, Smith and Elliott of Graham defeated Wilson and Nelson of Maryville 6-3 6-2, and Tarkio defeated the Savannah team, Clark and Graff, 6-3 6-0.

In the semi-finals in the doubles meet Bethany defeated Blythedale 8-6 6-0 and Tarkio won from Graham 6-4 6-0.

Dean Bernard's class in Freshmen Problems entertained the instructors at a tea given a week ago Friday in the Recreation Room, from 3:30 until 5:30.

During the first hour, Mildred Wiles presided at the tea table. She was assisted by Erna Greenwood, Opal Holt and Emily Martin. During the second hour Ulva Lanning presided, and was assisted by Leiva Woods, Mary Rose Dougan, and Eva Hatfield.

The general committee for the tea was composed of Ethel Chamberlain, Georgia Miller, Mabel Sears, Dorothy Biggs, and Hazel Burson.

The tea table was prettily decorated with snapdragons from the College greenhouse.

Eva Wilson and Lois Rostock spent the week end in Kansas City, visiting with friends.

Kassie Leew, a former student here, who has been teaching near Trenton, has enrolled for the spring quarter.

Membership Fees in Athletic Ass'n Reduced from Three Dollars to One

Written by Garland Miller, Graduate of the College

Membership fees in the Northwest Missouri High School Athletic Association were reduced from three dollars a year to one dollar a year, effective at the beginning of the next school year, by action of the Board of Control of the Association, which met at the College Saturday morning.

The Board thought this step advisable in view of the fact that most of the schools in the organization have also joined the State High School Athletic Association and it was thought that the three dollar district dues, plus the fee paid to the state organization, was too much of a financial burden on the smaller high schools of the district.

The board of control took its action after the proposal to lower the fees had been endorsed at the general business meeting of the association, which was held in the auditorium at 9 o'clock.

Officers Re-Elected
In recognition of the excellent services which they have rendered to the association, the present officers were re-elected at this meeting.

Supt. L. E. Ziegler of Maryville was re-elected president; Supt. E. R. Adams of Tarkio was named again as vice-president; Principal F. E. Vander-sloot of Benton High School of St. Joseph will continue as recording secretary, and W. L. Mapel will again serve as corresponding secretary and treasurer.

W. H. McDonald, principal of Trenton High School, was elected to the board of control last year and has two more years to serve. J. M. Broadbent, superintendent of Martinsville, has one more year to serve on the board, and U. L. Riley, superintendent at Maitland was selected as the other member of the board.

The board of control met first at 2:15 a. m. when several questions were submitted over which the general association meeting had no jurisdiction, the board again went into session following this meeting.

Students To Membership
It adopted the following interpretation as to membership in the district association: "That membership in the Association shall mean that all teachers, administrative officers, and students in any school which has paid the required membership fee shall be recognized as members of the association and shall be entitled to all privileges and concessions made to the Association, this referring especially to reduced railroad rates. Each school, however, is to have only one vote in the Association."

The Association still will require all schools taking part in, or entering contestants in any district contests, to be come members of the district association, according to the board.

After reducing the membership fee, the board made the decision that the penalty for late payment of the fee as provided for in the constitution, should be retained. This provides that unless the fee is paid before October 15, the school making the late payment shall be penalized 50 cents for each month which elapses between October 15 and the time of payment of the fee.

Count Enrollment At Peak

The question of school enrollment as related to classification of a school in the spring contests was taken up and decided by the Board Saturday morning. The decision reached was that the total enrollment of the school at the time of making entries in the contests shall be used in classifying the school in Class A or B of the contests. Some schools entered in the contests had enrollments last September 1, when school began of slightly less than two hundred but their total enrollment at the present time is more than two hundred.

Whether or not the association should furnish literature to member schools taking part in the district debates was discussed but no action was taken on the proposition at this time.

College Relay Team Runs Fifth at Drake

Trouble With One of 'Ungles' Legs Causes Bearcats to Return to Maryville After Prelims.

The medley relay team, composed of Eugene Wilson, Leon Ungles, Donald Davenport and John Smith, attended the Drake Relays, held at Des Moines last Friday and Saturday. The quartet ran in the preliminaries on Friday, placing fifth in their heat, but Ungles had trouble with one of his legs and the boys decided there would be no use to attempt any races Saturday and returned home early Saturday morning.

The team ran the race in about 8 minutes. Wilson ran the 220 in 25 seconds, Ungles the 440 in 53, Davenport the 880 in 2.6, and Smith the mile in 4.50. Ungles jumped the gun twice and was set back and then had more difficulty when the man in the next lane stumbled and Ungles was forced to get around him by running off the track.

Coach Lawrence, on account of the high school contests and track meet, was unable to accompany the boys to the relays, but Hugh Graham, a coach at the Maryville High School, went with the team.

Newman Club to Help in Flood Relief Work

House Committee Reports Way to Raise Funds for Home and Floor Relief.

The Newman club had a very interesting meeting yesterday in which various plans for raising money were discussed. The chairman of the house committee reported the decision made at a recent meeting, one of which was a means of securing aid in helping to pay the debt on the club home.

A committee was appointed to plan a candy sale for the flood relief fund.

The program consisted of two numbers. Mildred Clark and Margaret Quinlan played an instrumental duet, "Spring Morn." Christine Goff sang an aria from the Messiah, "He is Despised," and "What You Find in the Heart of a Rose."

The Newman Club met at 9 o'clock last Tuesday morning in room 326 at the College. A short business meeting was held. The rest of the time was given over to Father Richard Felix who gave a very interesting talk on the Marshall Smith letters. He explained that the idea that there is a conflict between the state and church allegiance is so foreign to the thinking of Catholic students that many are unprepared to refute such questions when they arise. He gave references where by the students might inform themselves more fully on the status of church and state. One interesting fact was brought out in the talk, that this thing questioned was debated by Cardinal Newman and Gladstone.

The references are as follows:
Laski: Studies in the Problems of Sovereignty.
Cortez: Catholic Order and Authority.
Roger: Democracy and Bellerminel Manning: The Vatican Decrees in Their Bearing on Civil Allegiance.

Debate Title to Maryville Team Over Lock Spgs.

Competition Strong in Extempore, Declamation, and Oration—Winners of Preliminaries Speak Again Before Judges Decide.

The Maryville High School debating team, composed of Doris Wallace and Pauline Nichols, won the championship of Northwest Missouri when it defeated Lock Springs, represented by Ruth Tye and Mary Mansfield, in the final debate held at the College Friday afternoon.

The Maryville team took the affirmative side of the World Court question and the judges' decision was unanimous.

The winning of this debate was "repeated history" for Maryville, as this school won the silver cup and the championship last year.

The debate was one of the most interesting of the season. Both teams had won over many schools throughout the district and finished their season in the league with the final contest held at the College to decide the title.

Burdette Yeo, president of the student council, presided at the contest.

Following the debate the four winners of the preliminaries in extemporaneous speaking appeared in the finals. James Wilson of Bethany, the winner, spoke on the "Prospects of Candidates for the Next Presidential Election." Second place went to Floyd McCommas of Cameron, speaking on "The Attitude of China Toward Foreigners."

The finals in oration and declamation were held Saturday morning. Maynard Sanders of Gallatin, speaking on "The New South," was given first place and E. Whipple of Fortescue, "The Call to Arms," was placed second. The other two in the finals were Stanley Gox of Graham, "The New South," and C. Denny of New Hampton, "A Vision of War."

In declamation first honors were accorded Lois Stoutimore of Plattsburg, who read, "Courage." Miss Stoutimore won over thirty-two contestants in declamation. Second place was awarded to De Lana Voltz of Gilman City, who read, "Billy Brad and the Big Lie."

Three other girls were entered in the finals. They were Elizabeth Swisher, Civil Bend, "Humorogue"; Norma Stout, Oregon, "Mon Pierre"; Charlotte Cat, Tarkio, "Who's Afraid." There were five out of town judges in these contests: Miss Henderson, speech teacher at Missouri Wesleyan College, Cameron, Mo.; Miss Best, coach of dramatics at Peru State Teachers College, Peru, Neb.; Mr. Chotalain, coach of debate at Peru S. T. C.; the coach of high school debate at the same school and the coach of debate from Omaha University. J. W. Hake of the local College faculty assisted in the preliminaries.

both first and second places, first honor being given to a footstool and second place to a candlestick.

The entries, according to U. G. Whiffen, manual arts teacher at the College, were larger and better this year than ever before and he is well satisfied with the representative work of the various high schools.

An interesting piece of work, for display only, was brought to Maryville by Mr. Cochran of Bethany. It was an inlaid piece made in 1810, by the great-grandfather of one of his shop boys. It has been preserved in excellent shape.

Another interesting feature of the exhibit was the two model sailing ships, presented by two Maryville students.

The plans for the ships had been worked out in minute detail and were very interesting and artful creations, but were not given places on account of the impracticability of the model ships as an industrial arts project.
